

México Down Under

Embassy of Mexico in Australia

Bulletin No. 20

Letter from the Ambassador

Mexico, working for youth.

The United Nations declared August 12th as the International Youth Day. This year, the commemoration was dedicated to the civic participation of young people, essential to achieving sustainable human development.

SEE MORE

Global Mexico

Mexico hosts First Conference of the Arms Trade Treaty.

As part of its commitment to international peace and security, from August 24-27 Mexico hosted the first Conference of States Parties (1CSP) of the Arms

Trade Treaty (ATT) in Cancun.

SEE MORE

Australia In The Mexican Mining Industry

The relationship between Australia is at one of its best moments. Currently, complementary areas of cooperation are being analysed for the final draft of the Trans Pacific Partnership (TPP).

SEE MORE

Mexican Landscape

Mexico: leading tomato exporter in the world.

Mexico is the first tomato exporter in the world. The Mexican government has supported this activity that has rendered extraordinary results.

Our country has consolidated its position among the leading exporters, making it a horticulture leader.

SEE MORE

205 Anniversary Of The Independence Of Mexico In Australia

The most important month in Mexico's civic calendar, has begun. Two hundred and five years ago, in a small village in central Mexico, the Priest Miguel Hidalgo summoned the people to fight for their freedom and against oppression.

SEE MORE

Visit Mexico

The former Minister of Tourism, Claudia Ruiz Massieu, recently appointed by President Enrique Peña Nieto as Foreign Affairs Minister, reported that according to figures from the Bank of Mexico, the flow of international tourists from January to May 2015 totalled 13 million, exceeding by 7.2 percent the 12.1 million recorded during the same period of 2014

SEE MORE

Mexicans Down Under

First Asia-Oceania Regional Meeting of the Global Network MX (RGMX)

On the 20th and 21st of August the first Asia-Oceania Regional Meeting of the Global Network MX (RGMX) was held in Singapore. The event was organized by the Institute of Mexicans Abroad (IME) and the Embassy of Mexico in that country.

SEE MORE

Mexican Cuisine: Heritage and Innovation

Born out of the fusion of indigenous and Spanish cuisines, Mexican gastronomy has evolved over the years to become one of the few designated by UNESCO as world heritage.

Mexican cuisine is in fact a mixture of diverse cuisines, each one influenced by the rich geographic and cultural traits of each one of the regions.

SEE MORE

México
Visit Mexico

SEE MORE

Latin American Flavours Festival: Latin America Goodness Comes to Canberra

The Embassies of Latin America in Australia have partnered with the Park Hyatt Hotel to bring the First Latin American Flavours Festival in Canberra.

SEE MORE

More Bulletins