

México Down Under

Embassy of Mexico in Australia

| Bulletin No. 21

Letter from the Ambassador

President Enrique Peña-Nieto at the U.N.

In 1945 Mexico was one of the 51 founding countries of the United Nations. Since then Mexico has maintained a firm commitment to the resolutions and principles of the Organization, and has been characterized by its multilateral vocation, its clear willingness to negotiate and its heavy reliance on international cooperation.

SEE MORE

Global Mexico

Mexican Health and Bio Technology Sector.

Mexico has a modern and dynamic health and biotechnology industry, which plays an increasingly important role in the global environment.

In fact, Mexico is the second largest pharmaceutical market in Latin America and a major producer of high-tech medicine.

SEE MORE

Mexican Landscape

Tequila: A Spirit To Enjoy And A Culture To Explore

Tequila is one of the finest spirits in the world, made according to specific techniques and traditions. It is a drink to be appreciated and it enjoys the benefits of a Designation of Origin.

SEE MORE

Presidency

President Peña Nieto presents the National Effort Against Addictions.

President Enrique Peña Nieto led the “United against Addictions” event, in which the bases for cooperation between the Secretariats of Defence, Navy and Public Health were signed to create a common front through the National Effort against Addictions (ENFA) to address the use and abuse of addictive substances in Mexico.

SEE MORE

September: Mexico

September was a very busy month for the Embassy and for many of our friends. On the occasion of the 205th anniversary of the beginning of Mexican Independence, we held the traditional El Grito Ceremony and a Mexican Fiesta in Canberra, along with Mariachi and Folk Dance.

SEE MORE

Mexicans Down Under

During the month of September, two outstanding Mexican artists visited Australia and helped building the bridges of understanding among the people of Australia and Mexico.

SEE MORE